

LET'S TALK GIVING

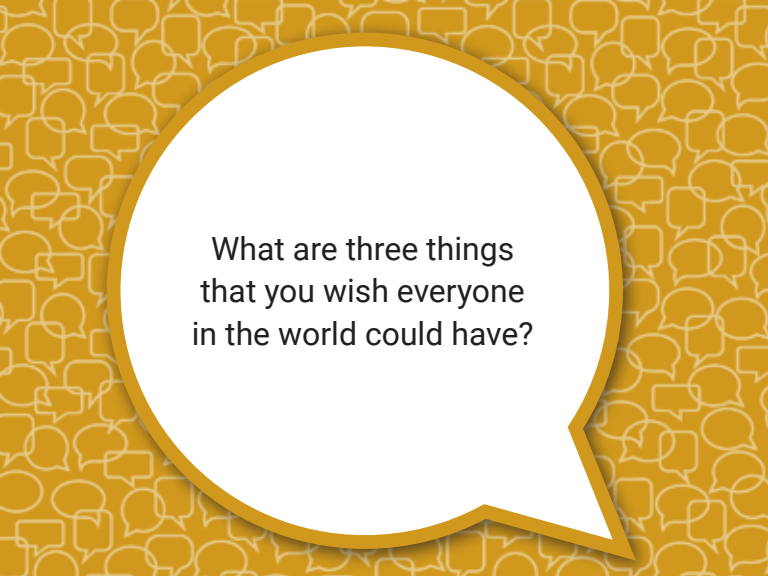

If you were mayor,
what would be
your first priority?

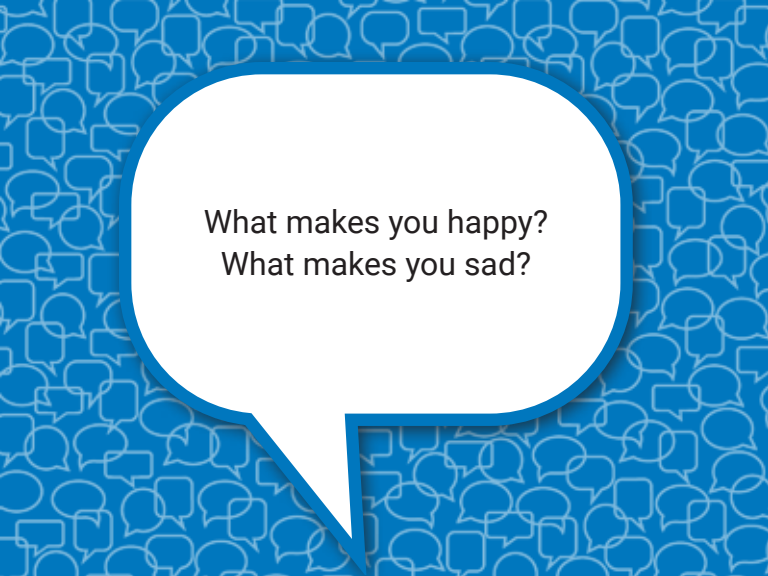

Do you prefer to give locally,
nationally, internationally?

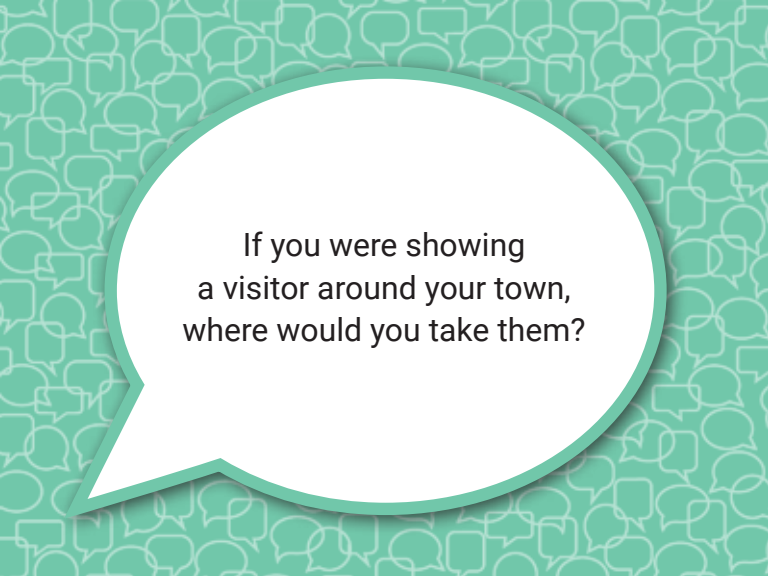

When and how did you
first learn about giving?

What are three things
that you wish everyone
in the world could have?

What makes you happy?
What makes you sad?

If you were showing
a visitor around your town,
where would you take them?

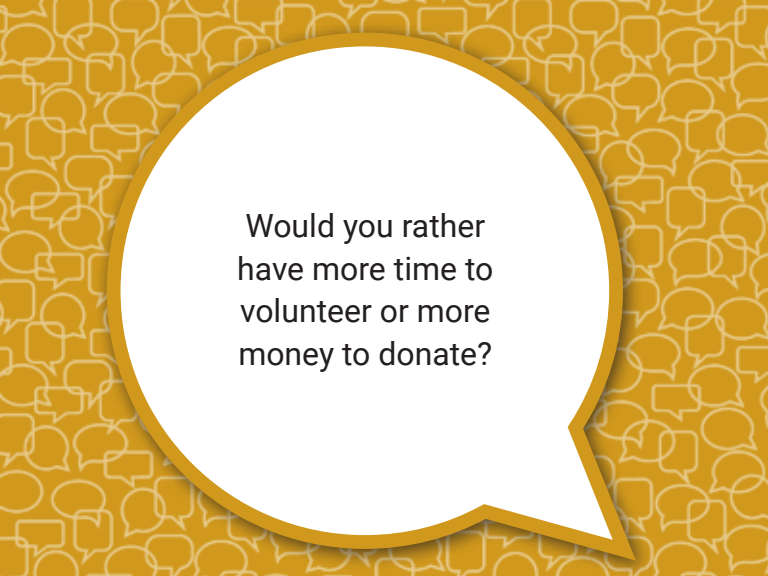

What opportunities
have you had that
others have not?

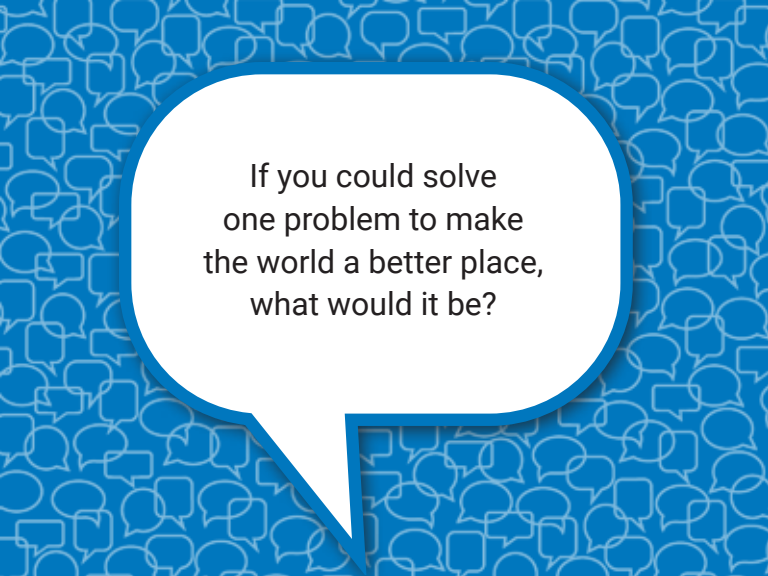

What makes something art?

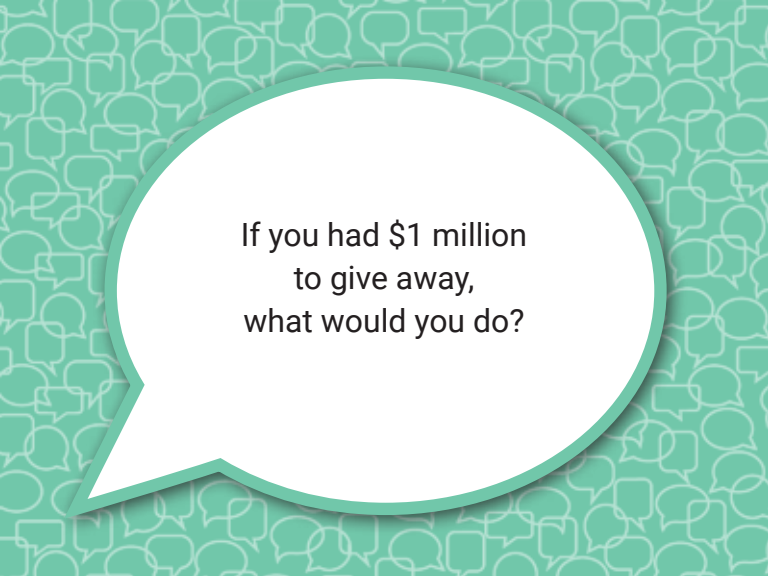

If you started your own charity, what would it be?

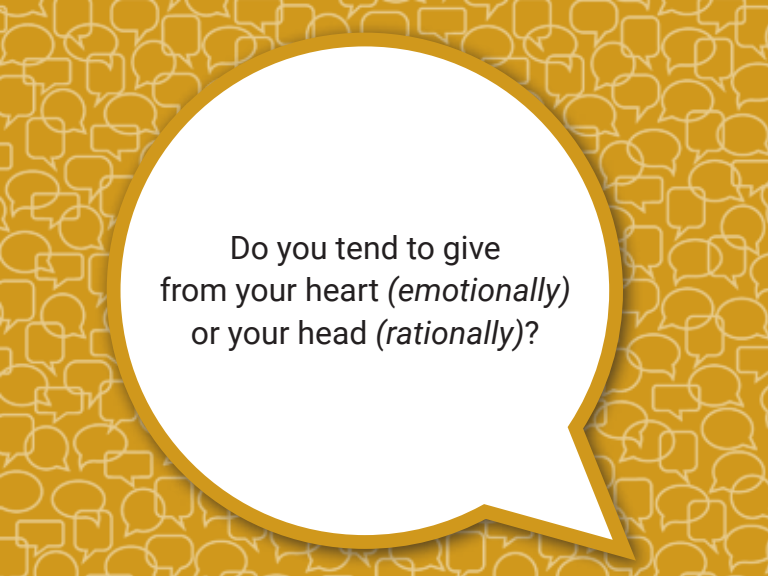

Would you rather
have more time to
volunteer or more
money to donate?

If you could solve
one problem to make
the world a better place,
what would it be?

If you had $1 million
to give away,
what would you do?

Do you tend to give
from your heart (emotionally)
or your head (rationally)?

Our community needs
people who _____.

Have you ever stood up
for something you thought was right? Describe.

What are the pros and cons
of making your giving public?
Keeping it private?

What organization receives most of your charitable contributions? Second most?

What are you thankful for?

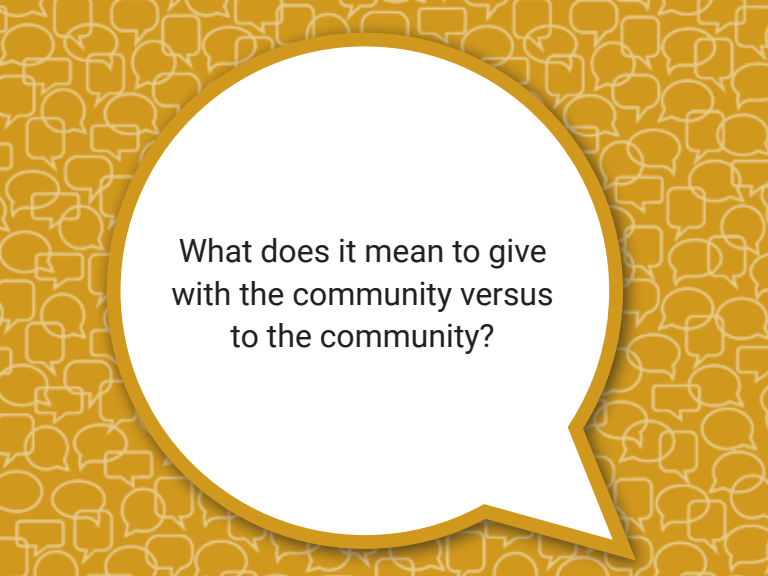

What was one of
your most meaningful
charitable experiences?
What was its impact?

Would you rather focus your giving on immediate needs or long-term solutions?

What personal experiences influence your giving?

What does it mean to give
with the community versus
to the community?

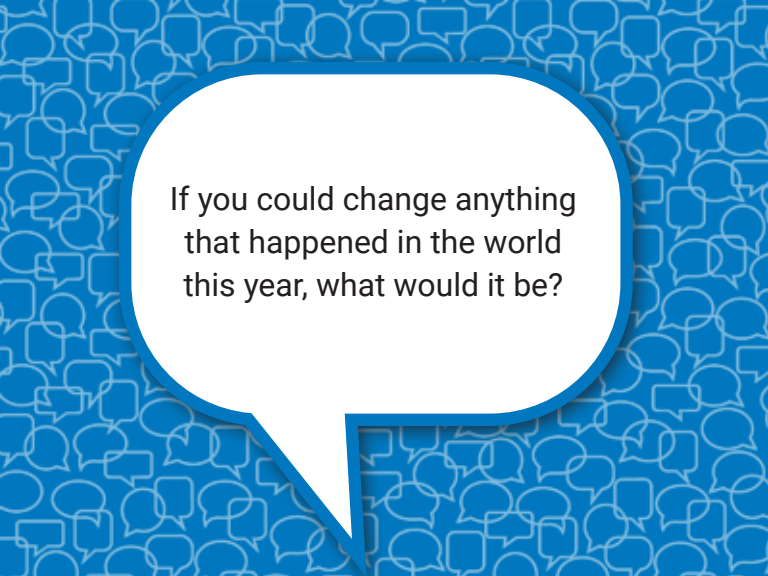

What gives you hope?

Would you rather be a
wealthy person who donates millions or a poor scientist who cures diseases?

Who has been a role model
for your giving?

If you could change anything
that happened in the world
this year, what would it be?

What social or historical events have influenced your giving?

Have you had a disappointing charitable experience? Describe.

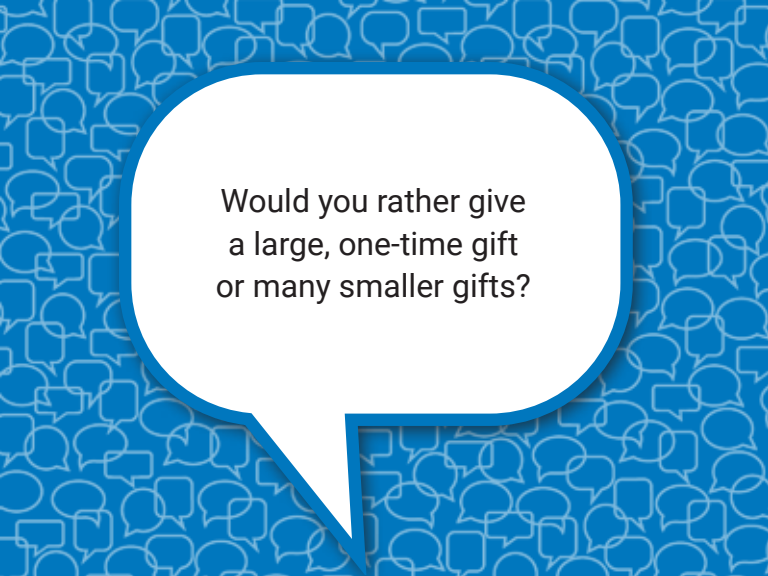

How does technology
impact giving?

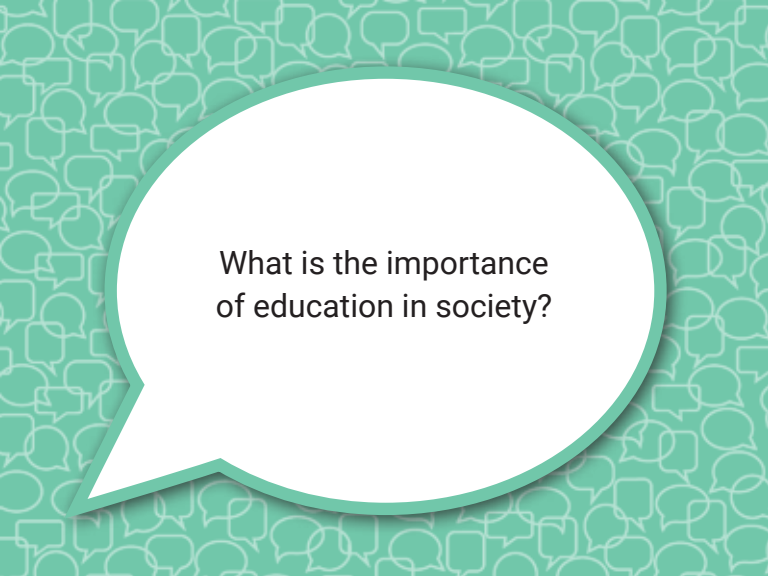

Describe one of the best things that someone has ever done for you.

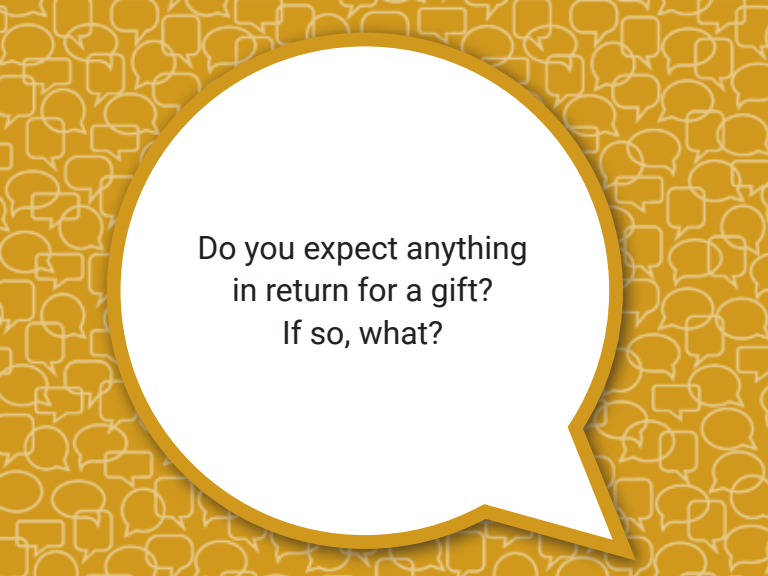

How could you use
your talents to help others?

Would you rather give
a large, one-time gift
or many smaller gifts?

What is the importance
of education in society?

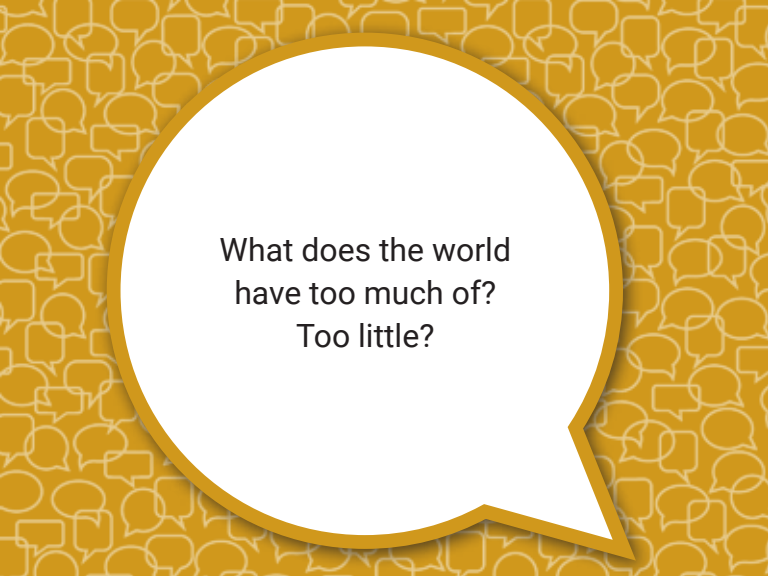

Do you expect anything
in return for a gift?
If so, what?

What do you worry
about the most?

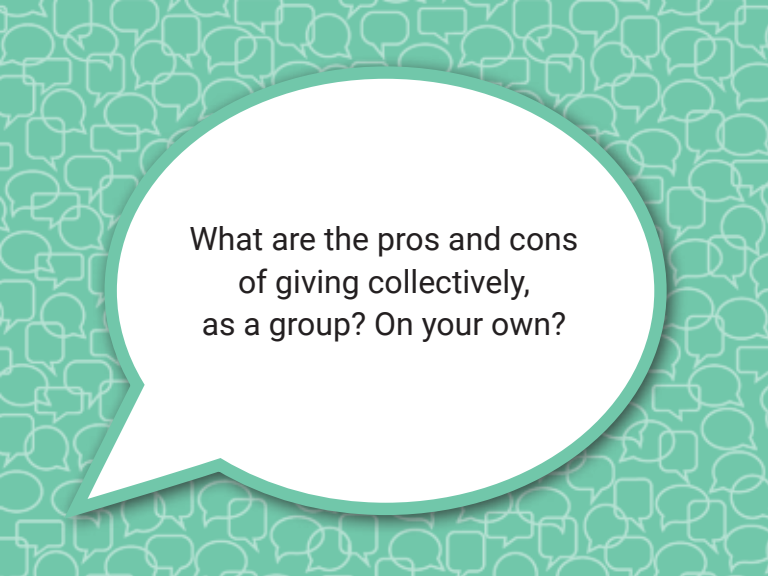

How would your town
change if charitable giving didn't exist?

What does the world
have too much of?
Too little?

How do you want people
to remember you
after your lifetime?

What are the pros and cons
of giving collectively,
as a group? On your own?

What motivates you
to give to the organizations
you support most often?
